Paris, April 23, N. S.

WE have Advices from Madrid of the 5th Inſtant, that the principal Moors inhabiting the Country of Beniamer, appeared before Oran, and propoſed to the Governour, on the Part of moſt of the Inhabitants of that Country, to become Subjects to the King of Spain. Accordingly a Treaty was ſettled with them, by which they promiſe entire Obedience and inviolable Fidelity to him, and particularly engage to ſupply conſtantly the Town of Oran with all Sorts of Proviſions, on Condition his Majeſty will aſſure them of his Protection, and treat them as his Subjects. Letters from Meſſina of the 26th of March adviſe, that Prince Lobkowitz, with the Garriſon of that Citadel, having marched out of it according to the Articles of Capitulation, the Ships provided to carry them to Trieſte would be ready to put to Sea in a few Days. The Imperialiſts, who defend Siracuſe under General Roma, refuſing to accept of any Terms of Surrender, Don Carlos had ordered all neceſſary Preparations to be made for reducing them by a Siege in Form, and it was believed would repair in Perſon to the Camp before that Place.

Hague, April 26, N. S. The Prince of Orange ſets out from hence the 28th Inſtant for Guelderland, to be preſent at an Aſſembly of the States of that Province. Don Louis Da Cunha, Miniſter from the King of Portugal, has frequent Conferences with the Deputies of the States. M. Glabbeck is made Colonel of Artillery, in the Room of Brigadier Verſchuur, deceaſed.
